Clae continues to develop its line "modern gentleman" by introducing new models for this season. Here a look at the latest proposals of the brand in California.

In addition to new versions of already established models such as Khan, Russell, the Strayhorn and Ellington, Chambers is presented, high-top style Chukka features toe-caps in nubuck, neoprene collar and leather interior. Available in four classic colors, the shoe and the rest of the new collection is now available from Clae retailers and brand online.
