

Crucial Kicks: The Best from Compass

Like shoes? Us, too. Capsule Trade Show operates a separate entity just for footwear that took place last week at Terminal 5 on New York's west side: Compass. We stopped by last week and picked out several instant classics for both fall and next spring. (Like this Mark McNairy New Amsterdam double monkstrap cap-toe in rich green that had menswear junkies a little hot under the collar.)

We've been loving L.A.-based CLAE's bold sneaks with classic sensibility. The color pairings are what really caught our eye on these two beauties.
