Exclusive Video: The CLAE Hockney

ON JULY 26, 2011 AT 12:40 PM

CLAE FOOTWEAR - The Hockney from Funk Factory Films on Vimeo.

In honor of their 10th anniversary, LA-based contemporary kick maker CLAE had Funk Factory Films shoot a series of videos that celebrate their best-known styles. The Hockney is an understated and always appropriate shoe for the modern gent... one who appreciates a side order of the unexpected. In the video, our hero runs shit in the boardroom, hops on his bike and, via the Pacific Coast Highway, goes to find a little trouble.
