Clae gets together with Mighty Crown to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the raggae dance hall crew. After having worked with Stussy on varsity jackets and with Nike Sportswear on a sneaker pack before, they have now given the Clae McQueen their own look. Featuring a grey wool upper, the mid top sneaker comes with green and red leather piping accents, contrasting green stitching, and special red logo tags on the tongue and heel. The sneaker will release in a limited edition mid December 2011.
